

Carpenter-Ridgeway Neighborhood Garden Tour

Saturday, June 28th, 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. ■ Rain or Shine! ■ Tickets are $5
Proceeds go toward the purchase of a Sid Boyum Sculpture for our neighborhood park

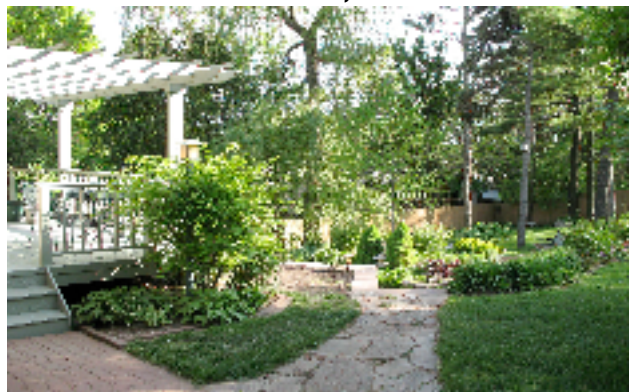

Stroll through seven private home gardens in the Carpenter-Ridgeway neighborhood during the Carpenter-Ridgeway Neighborhood Garden Tour. Enjoy this hidden treasure of a neighborhood often referred to as “City Living With a Country Feel”, and enjoy the beauty of these wonderful private gardens and public spaces. Get creative ideas for your own home garden and neighborhood. The Carpenter-Ridgeway Neighborhood Garden Tour is Saturday, June 28th, from 9 to 3, rain or shine. Location: Between Aberg Ave. & Wright St., on Madison’s Eastside.

Talk with gardeners about their designs and plants used in their gardens. Get ideas for your own garden and neighborhood! Advanced tickets can be purchased at Klein’s ■ Willy St. Co-op
Johannsen’s ■ Associated Bank on E. Washington Ave. ■ Jungs at Northport. Questions call 244-0054.

Sponsored by Wisconsin Landscapes, Inc. ■ Klein’s Nursery and Greenhouses ■ Willy Street Co-op ■ Johannsen’s Greenhouses ■ Associated Bank ■ The Bruce Company
The Flower Factory ■ Jungs Garden Center at Northport

June 28, 2008

City Living With a Country Feel