

As Ed Sullivan Says, 'Really Great Shoe'

University of Wisconsin students have not lost their sense of humor.

While demonstrators Monday backed black student demands, another group calling itself the "Wisconsin Shoe Salesman Assn." (WSSA) addressed itself to another cause.

With tongue firmly in cheek, the WSSA in a leaflet demanded:

"That everyone wear one black shoe and one white shoe.

"Support for our arches.

"Sole support.

"A shoe union.

"Shoe control.

"A shoes study department.

"That cobblers be on the faculty.

"That shoes have a vote in all faculty meetings.

"That all tennis shoes have full athletic scholarships.

"That all these conditions be met unconditionally — right this minute."
