

FBI Keeps Eye on Campus Wave

The FBI says it is keeping an eye on the current wave of demonstrations at the University of Wisconsin, but described its role as routine.

John Clarke, assistant U.S. attorney, said the FBI's observations are involved in possible violations of interstate law and "possible subversive activities."

---