

TOP ASSEMBLY AND SENATE RACES

Political eyes will be trained on selected races this fall as Democrats seek to retain their majority in the Senate and reclaim the majority in the Assembly for the first time in more than a decade. Based on interviews with top Republican and Democratic officials, some key races include:

ASSEMBLY

Incumbents seeking re-election

District, candidate	Party-Residence
7th, Peggy Krusick	D-Milwaukee
28th, Ann Hraychuck	D-Balsam Lake
36th, Jeffrey Mursau	R-Crivitz
37th, Andy Jorgensen	D-Fort Atkinson
43rd, Kim Hixon	D-Whitewater
49th, Phil Garthwaite	D-Fennimore
68th, Terry Moulton	R-Chippewa Falls
80th, Brett Davis	R-Oregon
88th, Jim Soletski	D-Green Bay
90th, Karl Van Roy	R-Green Bay
93rd, Jeff Smith	D-Eau Claire
96th, Lee Nerison	R-Westby

Incumbents not seeking re-election

47th, Eugene Hahn	R-Cambria
53rd, Carol Owens	R-Oshkosh
57th, Steve Wieckert	R-Appleton
91st, Barbara Gronemus	D-Whitehall
92nd, Terry Musser	R-Black River Falls

SENATE

Incumbents seeking re-election

8th, Alberta Darling	R-River Hills
10th, Sheila Harsdorf	R-River Falls
22nd, Robert Wirch	D-Pleasant Prairie
30th, Dave Hansen	D-Green Bay
32nd, Dan Kapanke	R-La Crosse

Open, with current office-holder listed

12th, Roger Breske	D-Eland
18th, Carol Roessler	R-Oshkosh